"TIRED BUSINESS MEN"

Two-Reel Century Comedy

Starring AL. ALT

BILL gets chased by a copper for trying to flirt with a swell-looking jane and after much running around and putting it over on friend cop, much to every one's amusement, he finally gets caught. But not for long. He gives the cop the slip and discovers the girl is working in an office. He gets a job there himself and finds it is a musical instrument house.

He raises ructions in the office and finally takes all the girls to his hunting camp. The boss refuses to be left behind and, as it is Saturday, he lets them stay. They have a wild time, playing boy scouts and hunting for wild animals. When they see a real bear cub they all get so frightened they take to their heels and wind up in the tents that a terrific wind storm has blown around them.
